MAY 2018

Brethren:

I want you to know, understand and remember that you are on an amazing journey - which is your life; and the very nature of that journey is to keep going forward and keep progressing. You are a work in progress, so today, do the work, make the progress.

When you achieve some success in life, try to keep it in perspective. Do not become arrogant and conceited and most importantly, do not become satisfied, because that might keep you from further effort; just keep going forward.

When you encounter disappointments, do not feel dejected and dismayed, because that may make you want to give up. Instead, keep going forward. You must realize how fortunate you are that you always have more to do. Embrace each opportunity to make a difference, to make new progress, to keep going forward.

Remember that there are always new wonders to see; new wisdom to be gained and new experiences to unfold. With ever-growing love for your journey and all it brings, keep going forward always with one thought in mind: whether in life or in Masonry, (which for you will always be intertwined) "I can make a difference".

Fraternally,
Howard Stevenson PGC
