Master's Message:

Brethren:
It's been a pleasure to serve you as Master for the last two years. Time certainly flies when you have fun. Doesn't feel like two years. Few things I wanted to leave you with...

FAMILY: I want to thank you all and your families for coming out and supporting our lodge events. And thank the families of our lodge officers for allowing our lodge officers to come out and work as hard as they have during my term and as hard as I know they will continue to do as they continue their ascension to the Oriental Chair in the East. Without family support it would be very difficult to accomplish many of the things we've done and continue to strive to do for our lodge. Speaking of family, let's not forget to continue to support our Eastern Star, Rainbow Girls and DeMolay chapters. Yes, that's right...DeMolay as well. We just initiated our first class of four young men at our inaugural meeting for Mt. Zion Chapter on November 16, 2015. A Rebirth indeed!

BROTHERHOOD: Our Fraternity has been around for centuries and will continue to be. Our lodge has been around, without having to merge with anyone...standing on its own for over 141 years...and will continue to do so...because of the bond that we all share...The Mystic Tie. Brethren let's keep the good times going. Stay positive and remember to look out for one another at ALL times...let us remember our obligations. To all the new Brothers that have come through in the last couple of years...you are the future of our lodge. Congratulations on your accomplishments and good luck in your Masonic careers.

To the incoming Worshipful Master of Mt. Zion Lodge #135 F&AM...you have your lodge's full support. Good luck on what I know will be a successful year!

May all your Holidays be filled with Joy & Happiness. Best wishes for a prosperous New Year. Thank you one and all...

God Bless you and your families

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

Izzy Garcia

Worshipful Master
