Master's Message:

Brethren:

Happy New Year! I trust your Holiday was Merry, and I hope that you and your family have a joyous and prosperous New Year. I would be remiss in my first Trestleboard if I did not thank the Brethren for their faith in me this coming year. I am humbled by this opportunity, and also wish to again thank the officers of this coming year. With your help, we can accomplish much for the Lodge this year.

As the New Year begins, I encourage all of you to take time with your family, friends, and brothers. It is these relationships; and not just our interaction with the Grand Architect, but our interactions with each other that define who we are. Be kind. Listen more than speak, and try to understand more than try to be understood. Give more than you take. Forgive. Continue to act in a way that other men want to emulate. Act in a way that speaks well of our craft. Each and every one of us speaks to what Masonry is today: we are living embodiments. Always try to leave an interaction with others such that when you leave, others know they met with a man who was on the level.

Finally I encourage you to remind yourself why you (first) became a Mason. What brought you to ask a Brother about this great Fraternity, and under what conditions did you find yourself taking your first obligation. Why did you petition, and what did you hope to gain from the experience. And, perhaps more importantly has that ideal changed, and why are you a brother today?

Regards,

Cristian A. Ossa

Worshipful Master
